

Parsonage Lane Sidcup

Craymanor Limited were very pleased to hand over this fantastic home extension and extensive alterations in October 2010 to a client who was absolutely delighted with the finished product and have now invited Craymanor Limited to work with them on creating a granny annex bungalow in the bottom the extensive grounds to this property.

BEFORE

The extension consisted of conversion of a conservatory to an orangery/garden room together with a fantastic two storey extension enabling the creation of a new dining room, extensive utility room and boot room at ground floor level. A new vaulted ceiling master bedroom, double ensuite and dressing room were created at first floor level.

The extensive master bedroom suite leads out onto a new balcony created over the orangery to give a wonderful al-fresco feel to the work as a whole.

The rear of the property also has top of the range extensive bi-folding doors which when open, give a fantastic open air feeling to the property.

The owners expressed their gratitude to Craymanor Limited for working very closely with them to achieve their requirements and in providing them with a top quality home which has increased significantly in value and offers exceptional value for money
