This stunning bungalow conversion was designed and constructed by Craymanor Ltd following many years of unsuccessful schemes presented by other architects.

Craymanor Ltd designed the conversion of this unattractive bungalow to this now unique and stunning large detached family home providing everything in the client's original wish-list and indeed offering significantly more floor space at a far less amount than other schemes presented by other architects.

The property now offers a significant family home with fantastic open plan living accommodation offering excellent value for money and significantly increasing the value of the existing property.
